Curriculum-Informed Tutors

at Point of Need

Provide students with one-on-one, subject-specific tutoring — from a single trusted source

When students have questions about what they're learning, there's nothing more powerful than one-on-one help to keep them moving forward. That's where Imagine Learning's embedded tutoring excels: subject-matter experts who are ready to help students directly within their lessons. As part of the broader suite of district resources, this consistent, high-quality support across subjects and products ensures students receive the help they need, precisely when they need it — reinforcing their learning and encouraging them to move on to more complex concepts with confidence.

Imagine Learning Tutors are:

Imagine Learning employees who receive ongoing PD

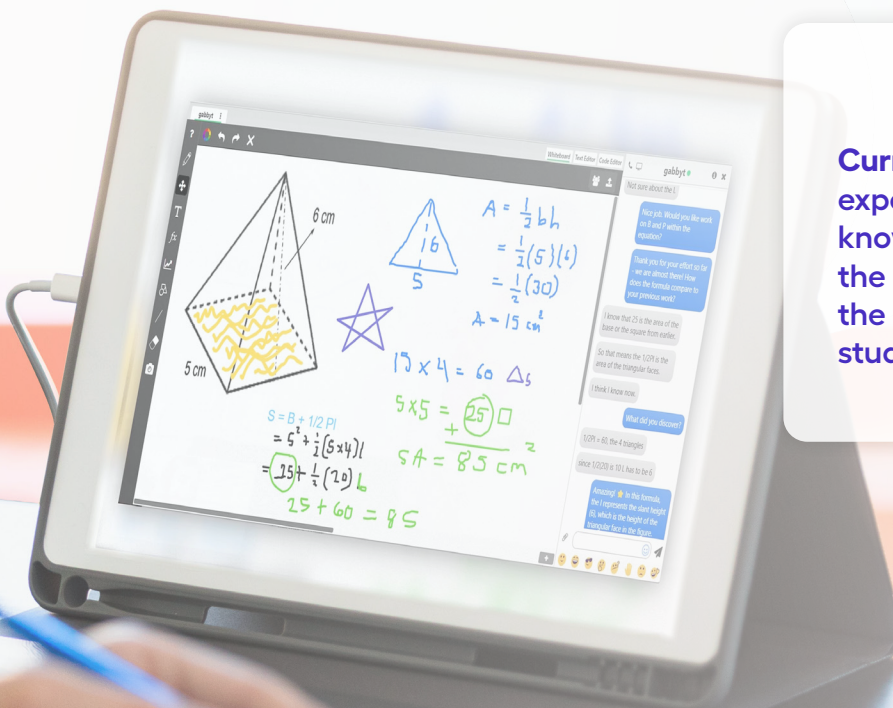

Accessible directly within multiple products

Experts in their fields

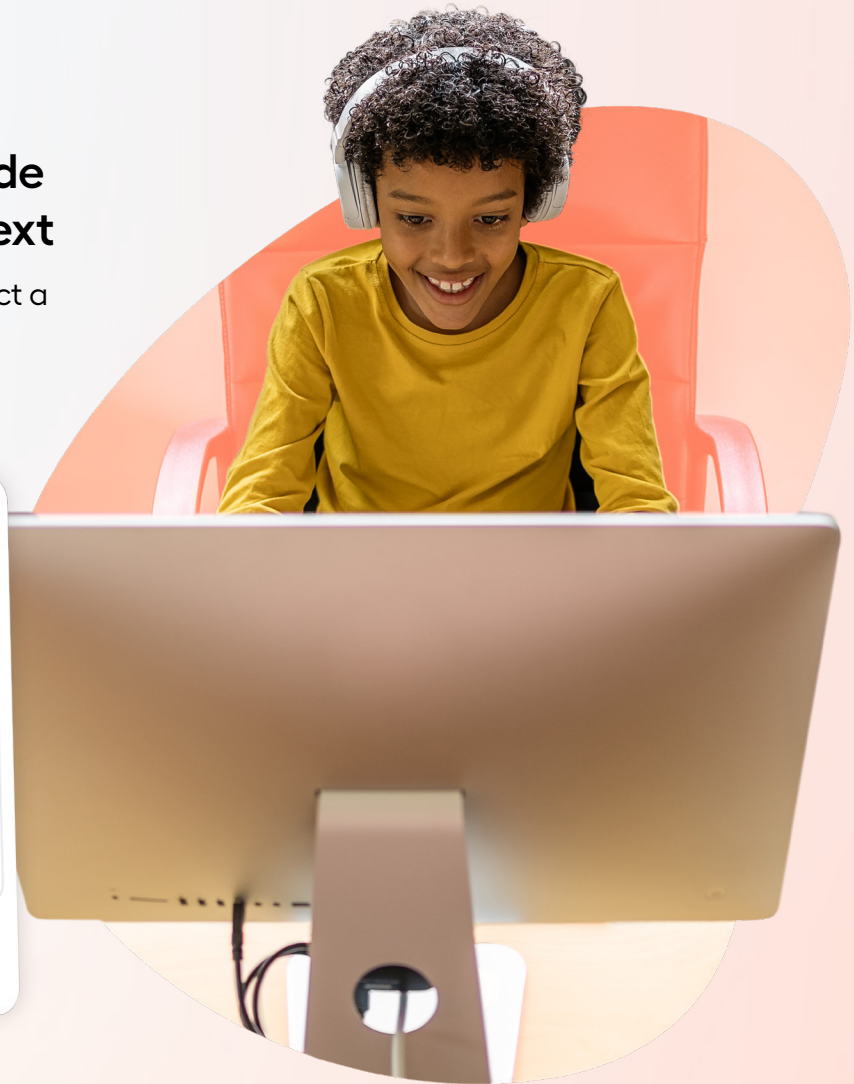

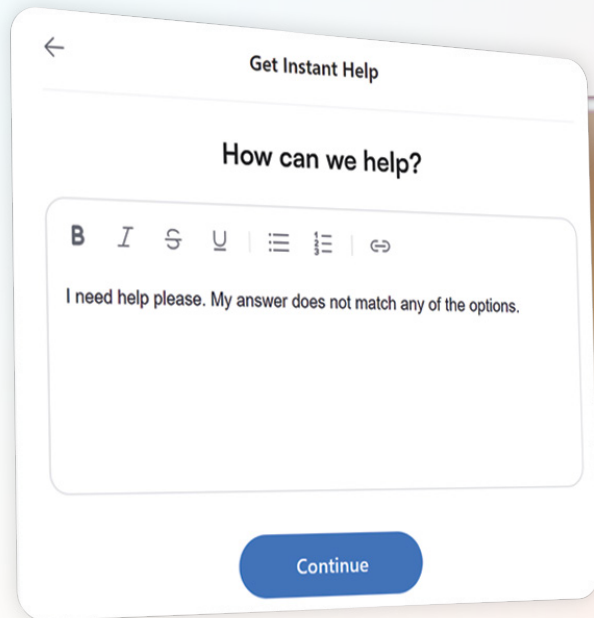

Ready to support students with their current curriculum, at point of need

Curriculum-informed: expert tutors are knowledgeable about the content, down to the specific lesson a student is working on

Subject-matter experts provide personalized tutoring in context

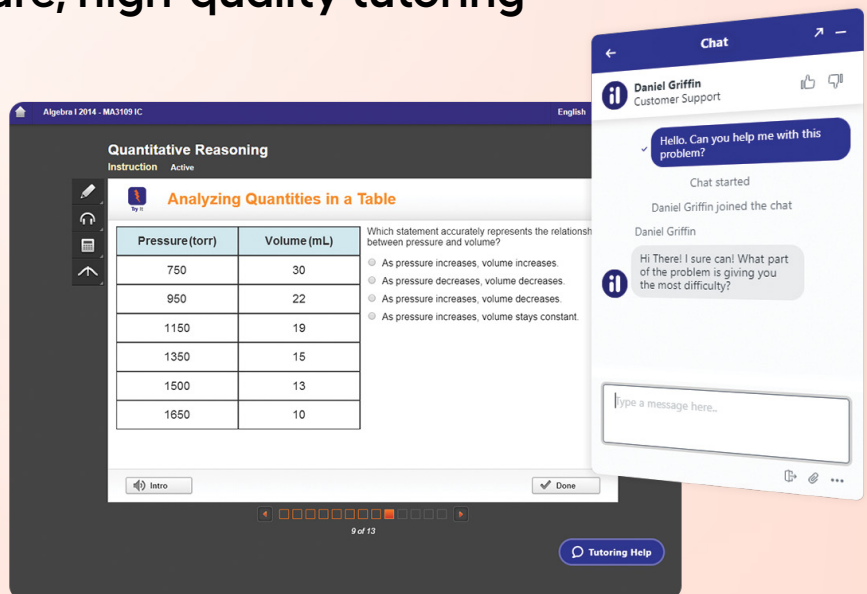

With the click of a button, students can contact a tutor who is informed on the current lesson.

Equitable access to secure, high-quality tutoring

Every student can benefit from readily available one-on-one support, but it's not always possible to offer.

Imagine Learning's on-demand tutors provide easy-to-access, individualized support to all learners whenever (and however often) they need it.

Embedded Homework Help Across Core Subjects

Instant, direct access to tutoring supports students exactly when and where they need it

edgenuity

Students can reach out to tutors directly from their Imagine Instructional Services, Imagine Edgenuity®, and Imagine EdgeEX™ lessons to get personalized help and explore concepts in:

- ✓ K–12 English language arts, math, science, and social studies
- ✓ 6–12 French and Spanish
- ✓ National test preparation courses

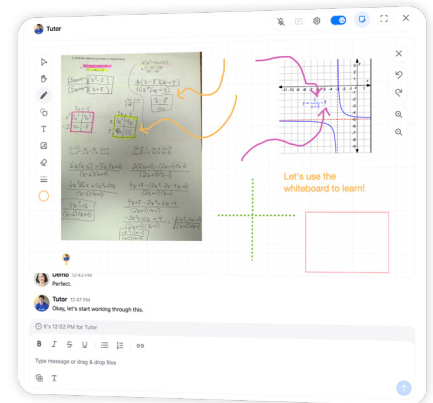

- Students click on the “Chat with a Tutor” button directly within their lesson to contact an on-demand tutor

Expert tutoring sessions help students improve understanding by:

- ✓ Assessing their current conceptual understanding based on course progress
- ✓ Encouraging interaction with the tutoring whiteboard — students can free write, type, insert shapes, and upload images
- ✓ Saving past chats for student review
